V. PRECONDITIONS FOR THE INITIATION OF THE COMPENSATION PAYMENT PROCEDURE BY THE ICF

The ICF initiates the compensation payment procedure when at least one of the following prerequisites is fulfilled:

1. The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (hereinafter the “CySEC”) has determined by a decision that IF, which has subscribed to the ICF, is unable, at present, to meet its obligations arising from its investors-customers’ claims, in connection with the provision of investment services or the ancillary services of Law 87(I)/2017, provided that such inability is directly related to its financial circumstances in respect of which there is no foreseeable realistic prospect of improvement in the near future, or
2. a court has, on reasonable grounds directly related to the financial circumstances of an IF which has subscribed to the ICF, issued a ruling which has the effect of suspending the investors ability to lodge claims against the said IF.

Subject to the provisions of the Directive, the ICF compensates the covered clients for claims arising from the covered services provided by its members, so long as failure by the member to fulfil its obligations has been ascertained, in accordance with the terms and procedure defined in the Directive, notwithstanding a relevant obligation by the member of the ICF in accordance with the legislation and the terms which govern its agreement with the covered client and regardless of whether the said obligation of the member of the ICF is based on the agreement or on wrongdoing.

Failure by a member of the ICF to fulfil its obligations consists of its failure:

1. Either to return to its covered clients funds owed to them or funds which belong to them but are held by the member, directly or indirectly, in the framework of the provision by the said member to the said clients of covered services, and which the latter requested the member to return, in exercise of their relevant right;
2. or to hand over to the covered clients financial instruments which belong to them and which the member of the ICF holds, manages or keeps on their account, including the case where the member is responsible for the administrative management of the said financial instruments.

VI. INVITATIONS FOR SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS

On the commencement of the compensation payment process, the ICF publishes in at least three newspapers of national coverage, an invitation to the covered clients to make their claims against the member of the ICF arising from covered services, designating the procedure for the submission of the relevant applications, the deadline for their submission and their content.

The compensation applications of covered clients with which they make their claims against a member of the ICF are submitted to the ICF in writing. The compensation applications must include:

1. the name of the claimant;
2. the address, telephone and fax numbers as well as any email address of the claimant;
3. the client code that the claimant had for the member of the ICF;
4. the particulars of the covered services agreement between the member of the ICF and the claimant;
5. the type and amount of the alleged claims of the claimant; and
6. the particulars from which the alleged claims of the claimant and their amount are derived;
7. the ICF may ask for more information included in the compensation application, which it communicates with its publication in at least three newspapers of national coverage as well as in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Cyprus and puts a catalogue with this information at the disposal of investors, at its offices and/or at the offices of the member of the ICF.

VII. AMOUNT PAYABLE

The amount of compensation toward investor-clients of ICF members shall be up to a maximum amount of €20.000) and the said coverage applies to the total amount of claims of an investor toward a ICF member, irrespective of the number of accounts, currency and place of provision of the service. In the case of a joint investment operation, the part of the claim attributable to each investor is taken into account. Joint investment operation means covered investment service or the ancillary service which is carried out on behalf of two or more beneficiaries, and generally persons who have a right which may be exercised upon the signature of one or more such persons.

The amount of the compensation payable to each covered client is calculated in accordance with the legal and contractual terms governing the relation of the covered client with the member of ICF, subject to the set-off rules applied for the calculation of the claims between the covered client and the member of the ICF.

The valuation of the financial instruments pertaining to the compensation payable to the covered client is carried out based on their value at the day:

1. of publication of the court ruling as mentioned above in paragraph V; or
2. of publication of the decision of the CySEC as mentioned in paragraph V.

The calculation of the payable compensation derives from the sum of total established claims of the covered client against the member of the ICF, arising from all covered services provided by the member and regardless of the number of accounts, of which it is a beneficiary, the currency and place of provision of these services.

Insofar as the amount of the claim determined exceeds the amount of €20.000, the claimant receives as compensation the lump sum of the amount of €20.000.

Insofar as a member of the ICF provides services to its clients through a branch situated in a third country, the amount of the maximum compensation payable to the clients of the said branch comes up, per client, to the lump sum paid by any investor compensation scheme in operation in the said third country, without however this amount exceeding the amount of €20.000. If in the third country an investor compensation scheme is not in operation, the maximum amount of payable compensation per client of the branch comes up to an amount corresponding to €3.417.

In the case whereby beneficiaries of a Joint Account of a member of the ICF are in their majority covered clients:

1. the maximum amount payable to all co-beneficiaries of the account comes up to the amount of €20.000 or, as the case may be, if in third country, and
2. the compensation is fixed on the whole for all co-beneficiaries of the joint account and is divided amongst them, in the way determined in the agreement between the co-beneficiaries and the member of the ICF, otherwise, in the absence of such agreement, it is divided equally amongst them.

Upon completion of the valuation, the ICF:

1. issues minutes listing the clients of the member of the ICF which are beneficiaries of compensation along with the amount of money each one of them is entitled to receive, and, communicates it to the CySEC and the member of the ICF within 5 working days from its issue; and
2. communicates to each affected client its finding no later than 15 days from the issue of the minutes, specifying the amount.

The claimant, to whom the ICF communicates the total compensation amount to which he is entitled, in case he disagrees with the ICF's decision, has the right within 10 days from the communication of the decision to appeal to the CySEC, justifying sufficiently his alleged claim.

The ICF is obliged to pay to each covered client (claimant) the compensation within 3 months from sending to the CySEC the minutes on the compensation beneficiaries.

The payment of the compensation by the ICF is deposited to a bank account of the covered client -claimant designated by the latter in writing to the ICF.

Every compensation payable to a covered client burdens initially the property of the ICF corresponding to the individual shares of its members and then the assets of the fixed reserve.
